

Stakeholder toolkit

Sample social media posts

Caption 1

Launching in 2022, @thefatheringproject new school programs provide a cost effective and accessible way to support student emotional, behavioural and cognitive development and improve academic outcomes. Developed in partnership with education experts and guided by the latest research evidence, these father-inclusive programs are catered to school stage and align with with national, state and territory requirements for family and community partnerships. To learn more or register visit <https://bit.ly/3rXquGA>

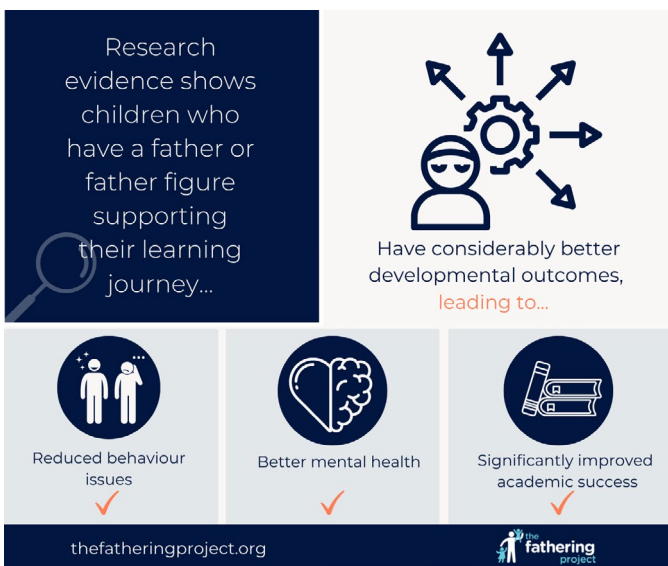

Caption 2

National harm prevention charity @thefatheringproject has developed a range of evidence-based school programs designed to re-connect and re-engage school communities by engaging fathers in the learning process. To learn more or register visit <https://bit.ly/3rXquGA>

Caption 3

@thefatheringproject school programs improve child development outcomes and strengthen communities by supporting early leaning centres and schools to deliver programs, activities, evidence-based resources and tactical learning strategies to fathers, father-figures and families. Find out more at <https://bit.ly/3rXquGA>

Sample image tiles

Research evidence shows children who have a father or father figure supporting their learning journey...

Have considerably better developmental outcomes, leading to...

- Reduced behaviour issues ✓
- Better mental health ✓
- Significantly improved academic success ✓

thefatheringproject.org

Click here to download

Research shows that engaging fathers leads to stronger school communities.

Where students, staff and parents feel more connected to each other, boosting wellbeing and the enjoyment of the learning process for everyone...

thefatheringproject.org

Click here to download

For more information: thefatheringproject.org